Step – 1

First Login the AWS console

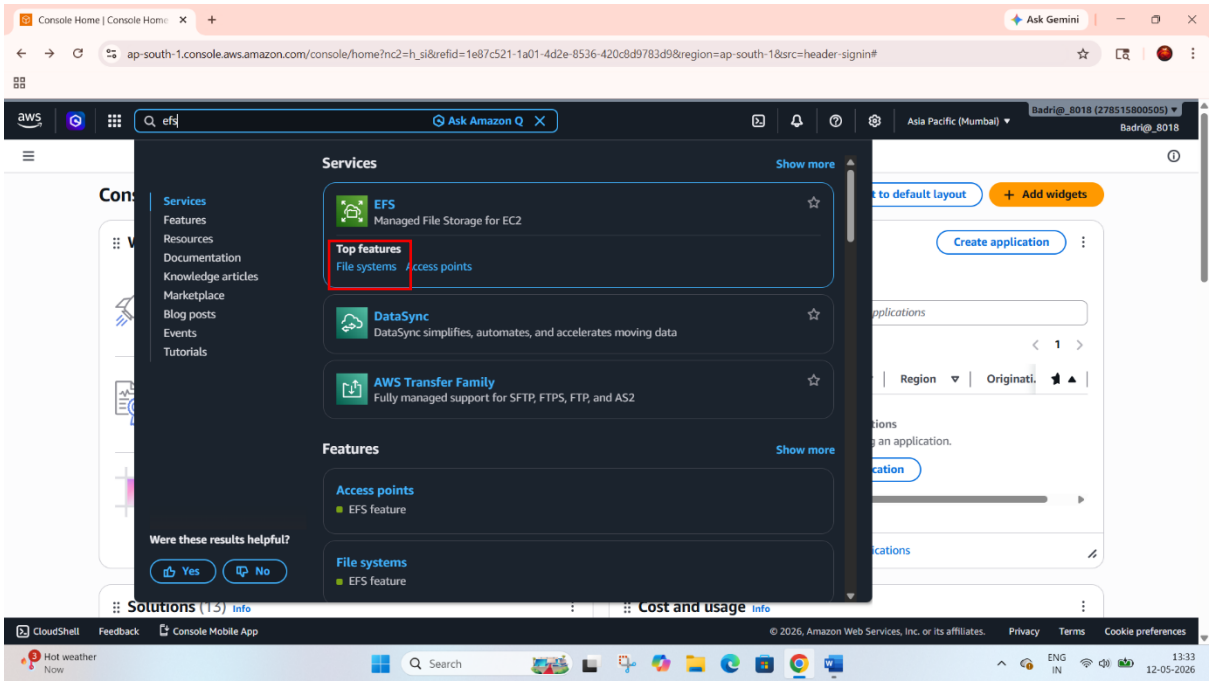

step – 2

Then click the Search bar & type EFS

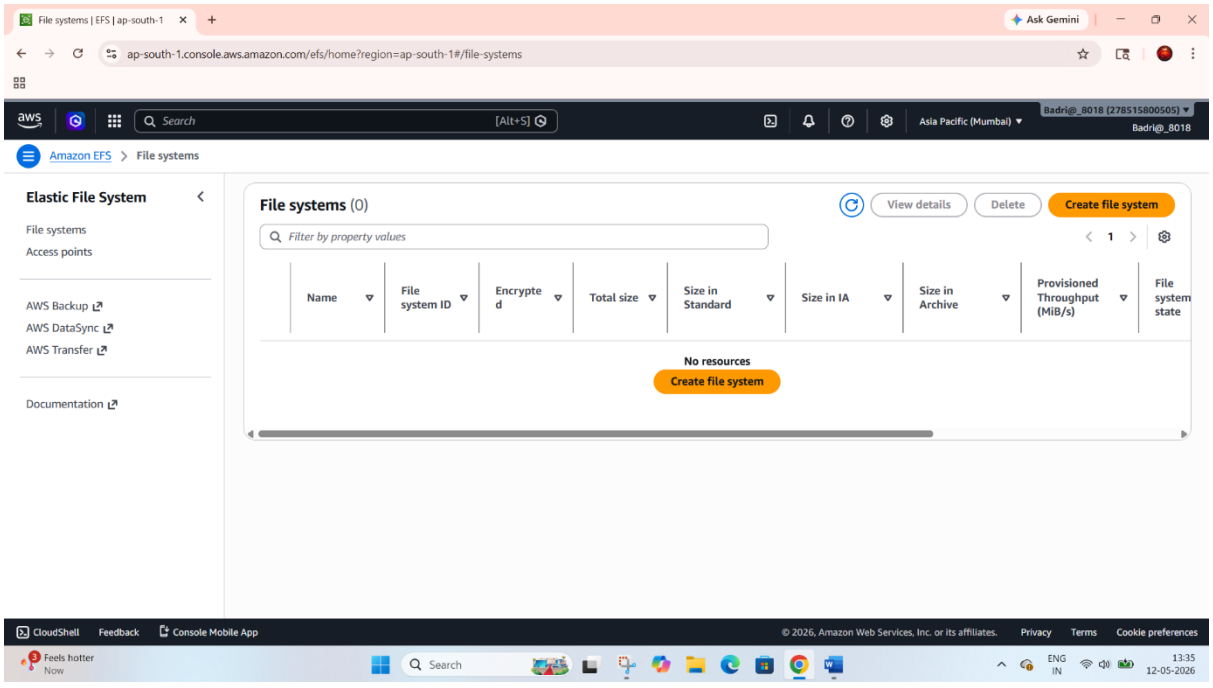

step – 3

next Click EFS & click File System

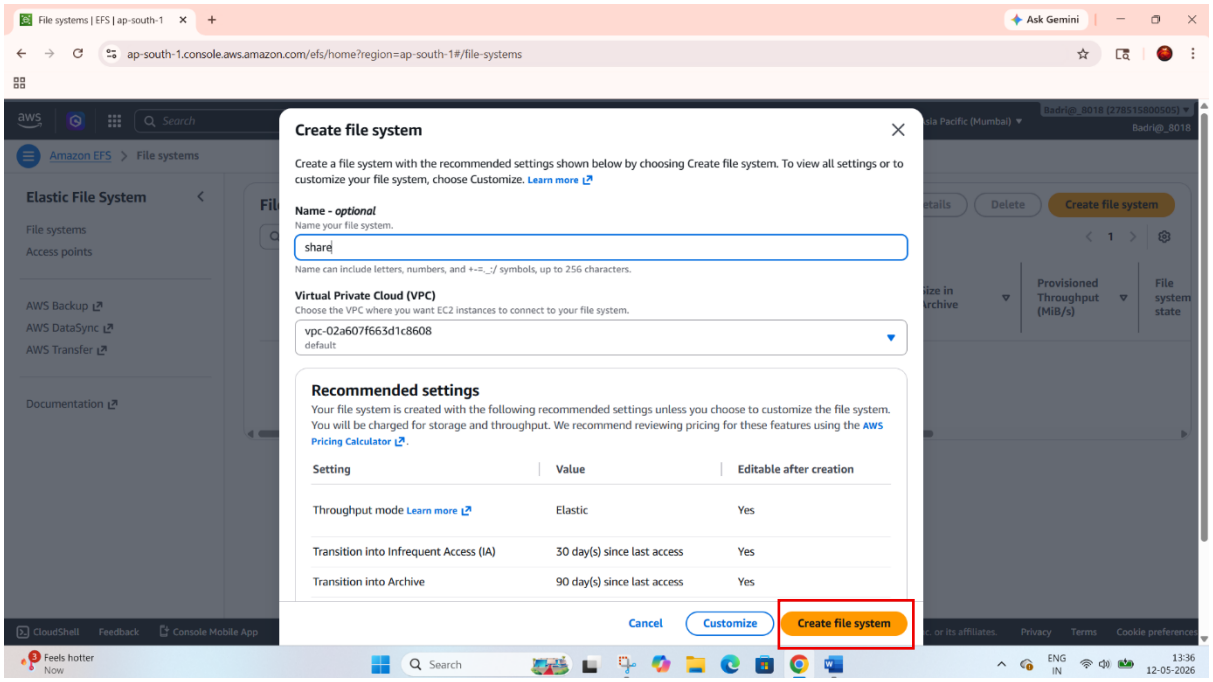

step – 4

Then go to File System

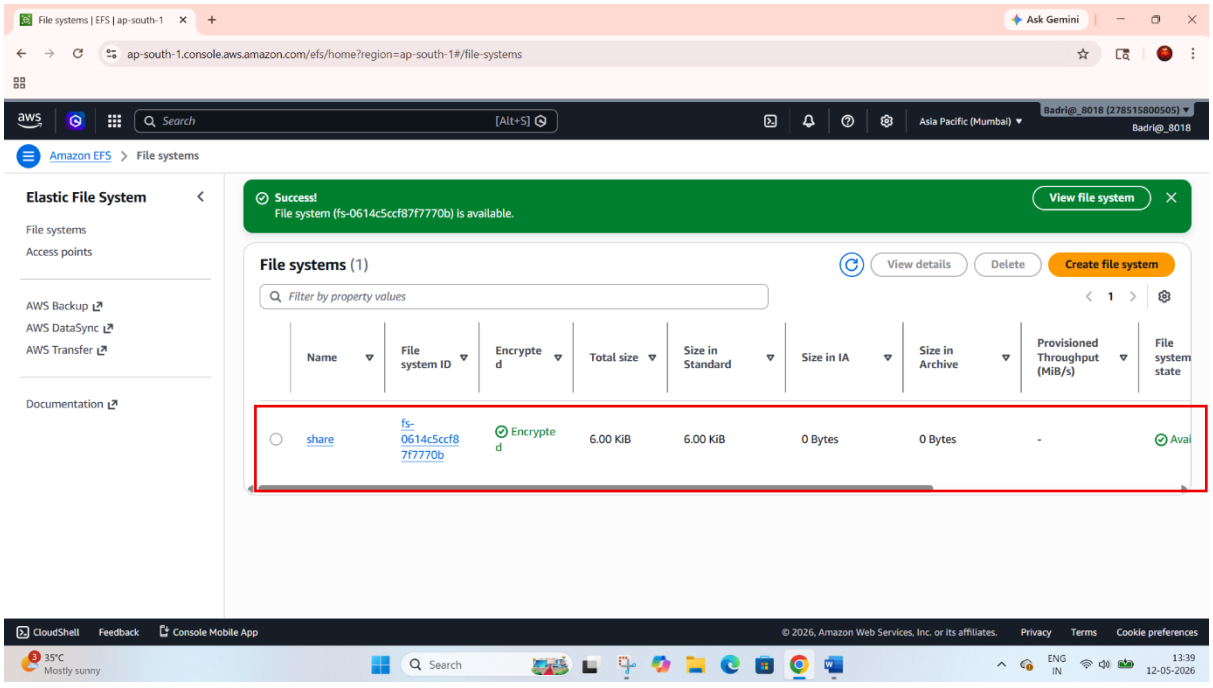

step – 5

go to create a file System then Click create

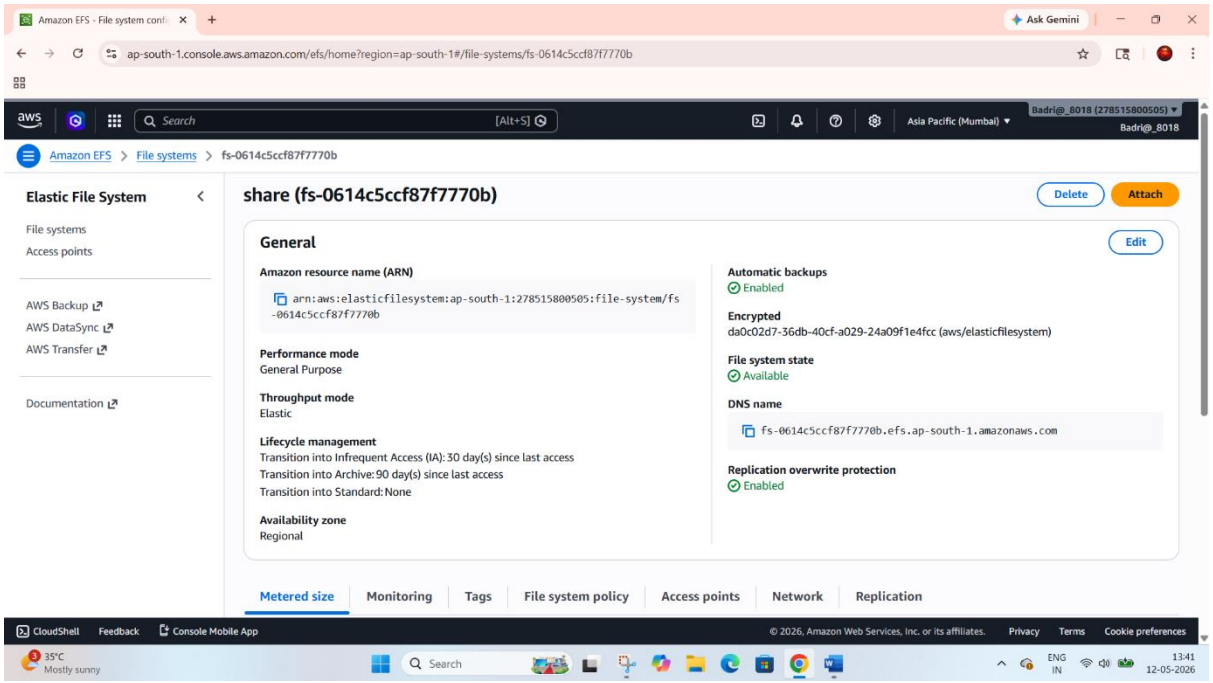

step – 6

Successfully the File has created

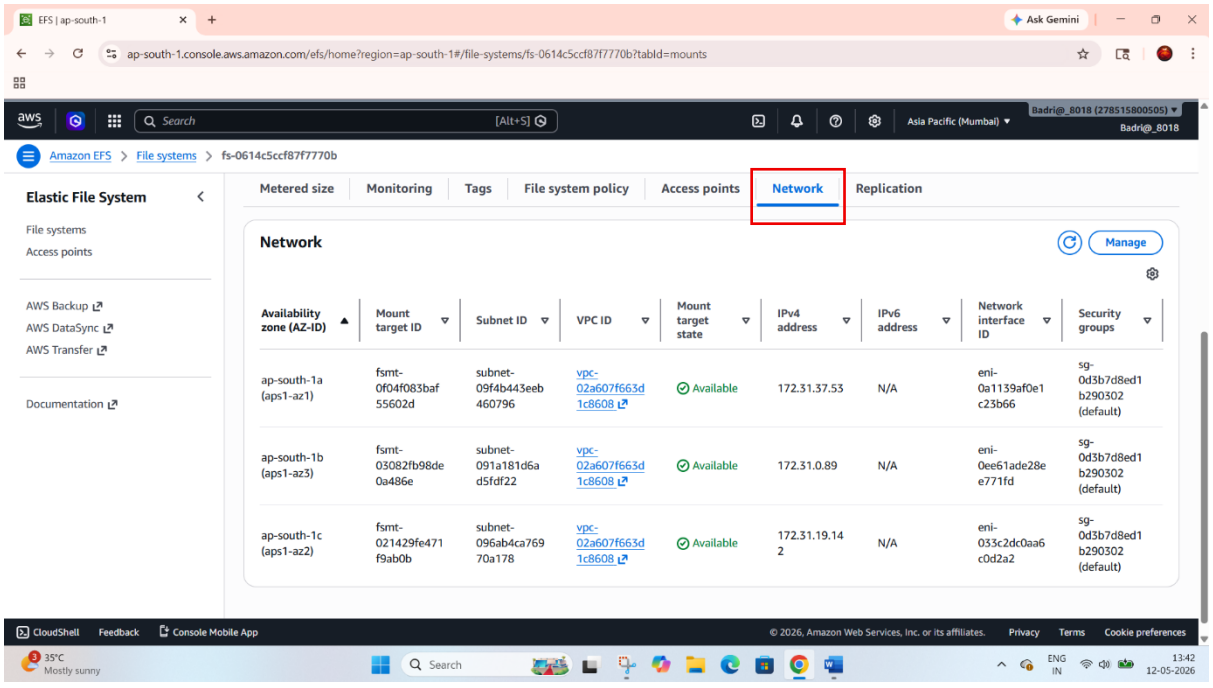

step – 7

Next click to File System ID

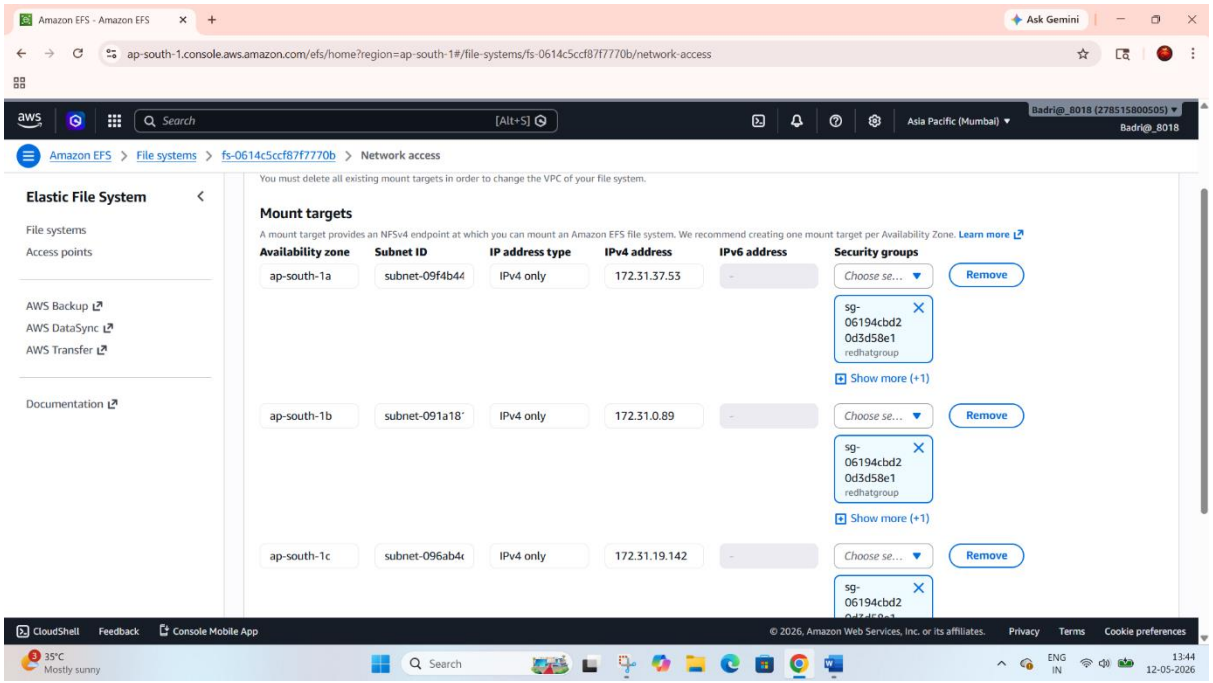

step – 8

Next Click to Network Option

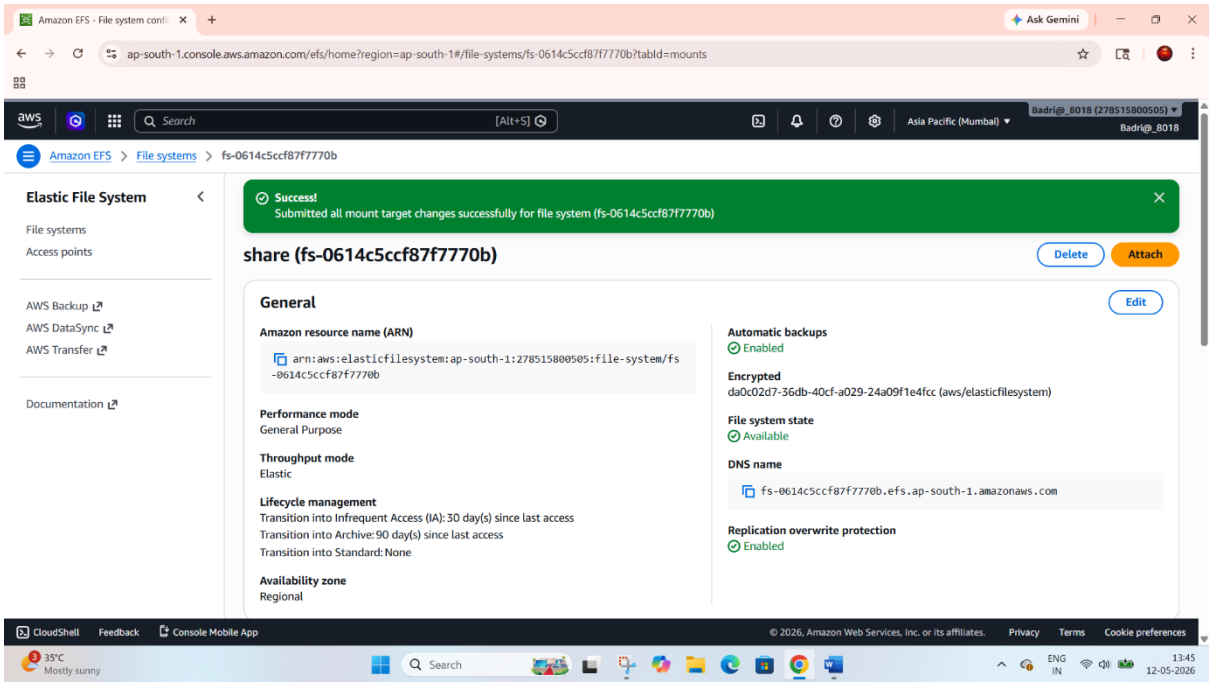

step – 9

click To Manage and add Security group

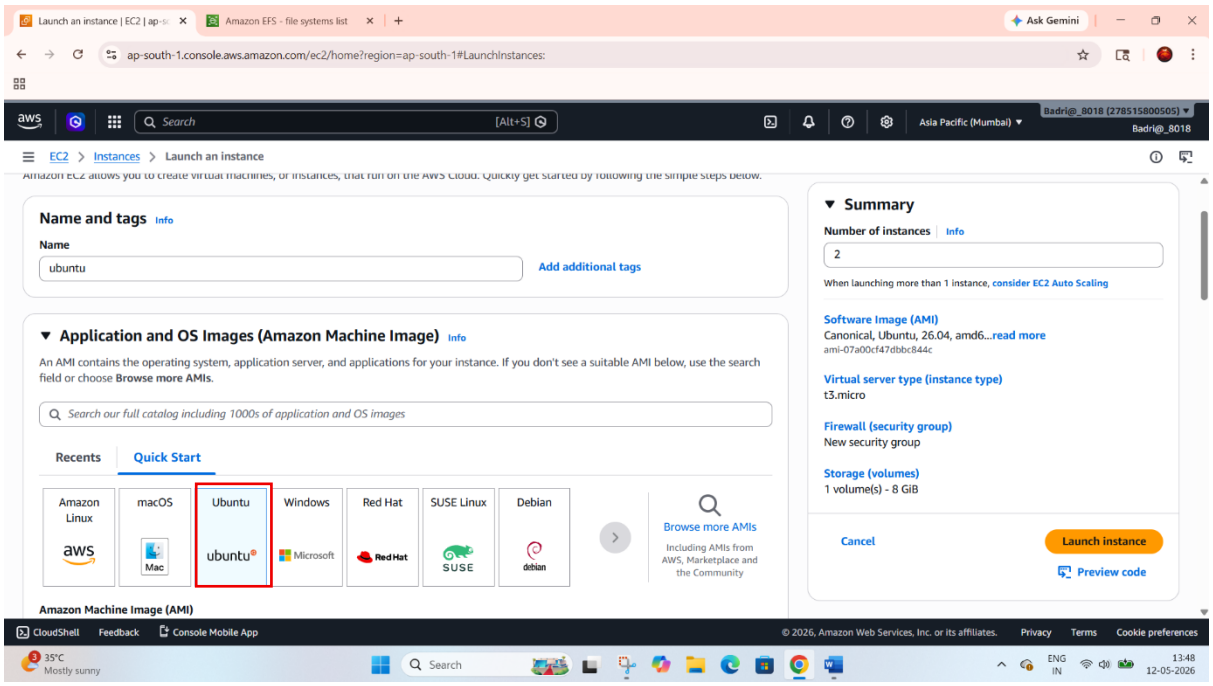

Step – 10

Next Click saves

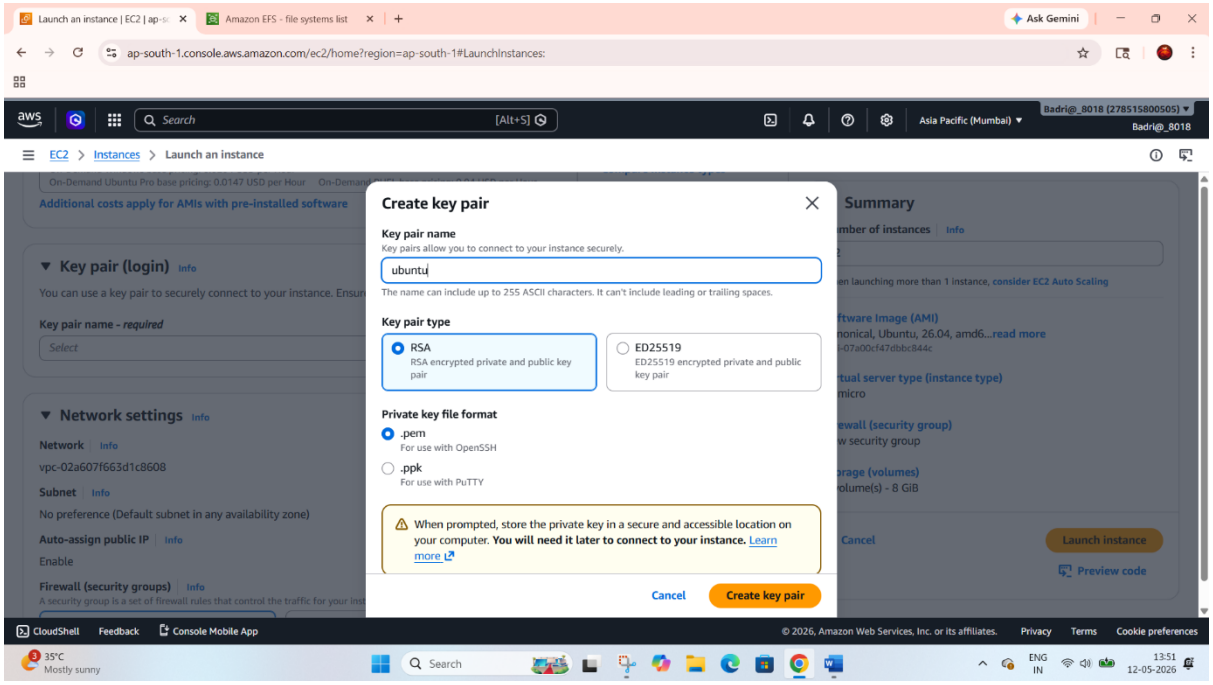

step – 11

then go to Lunch 2 instance & Select ubuntu

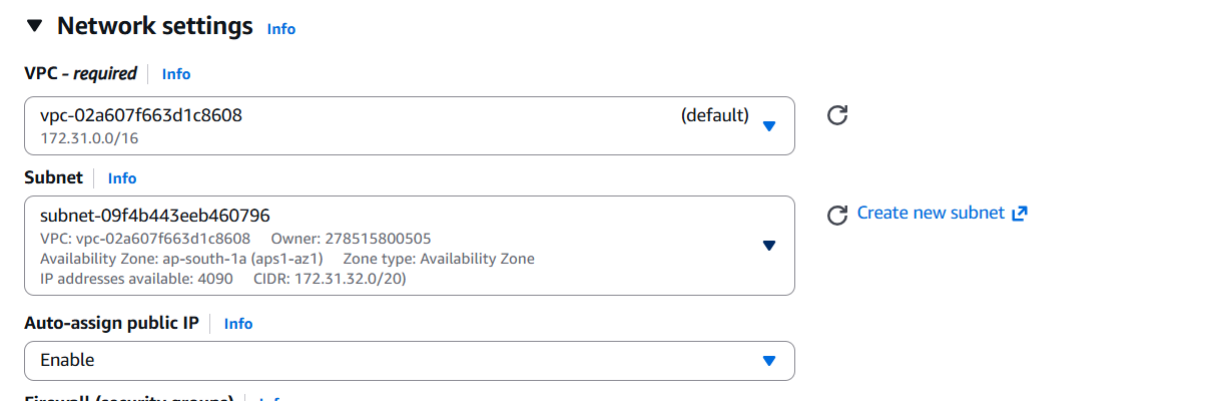

step – 12

next Click create a new Key Pair

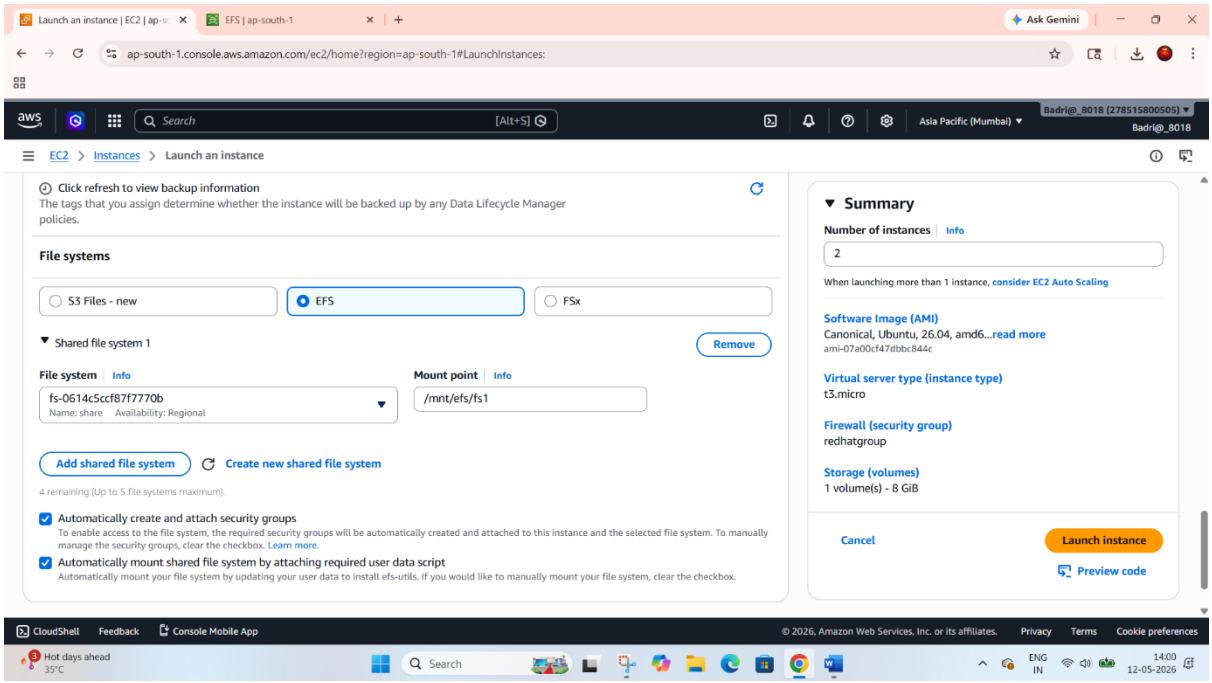

step – 13

Then Click to Network Setting & Edit the Network Setting

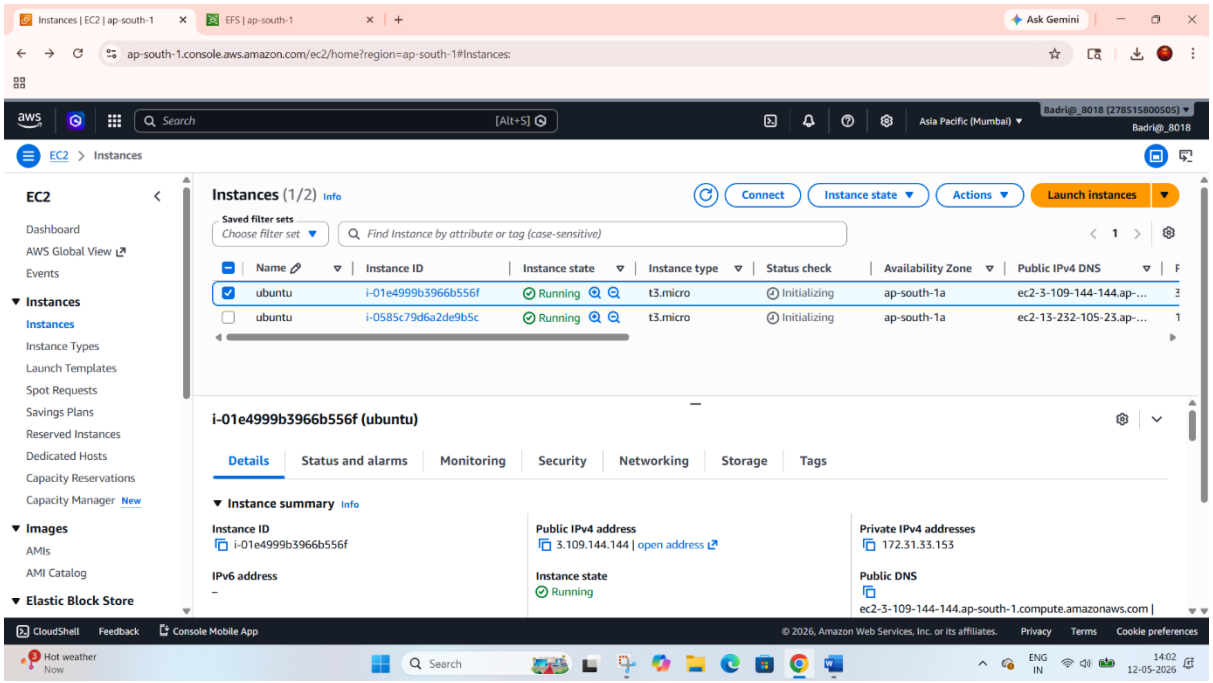

step – 14

Next add the Security group & select the File System

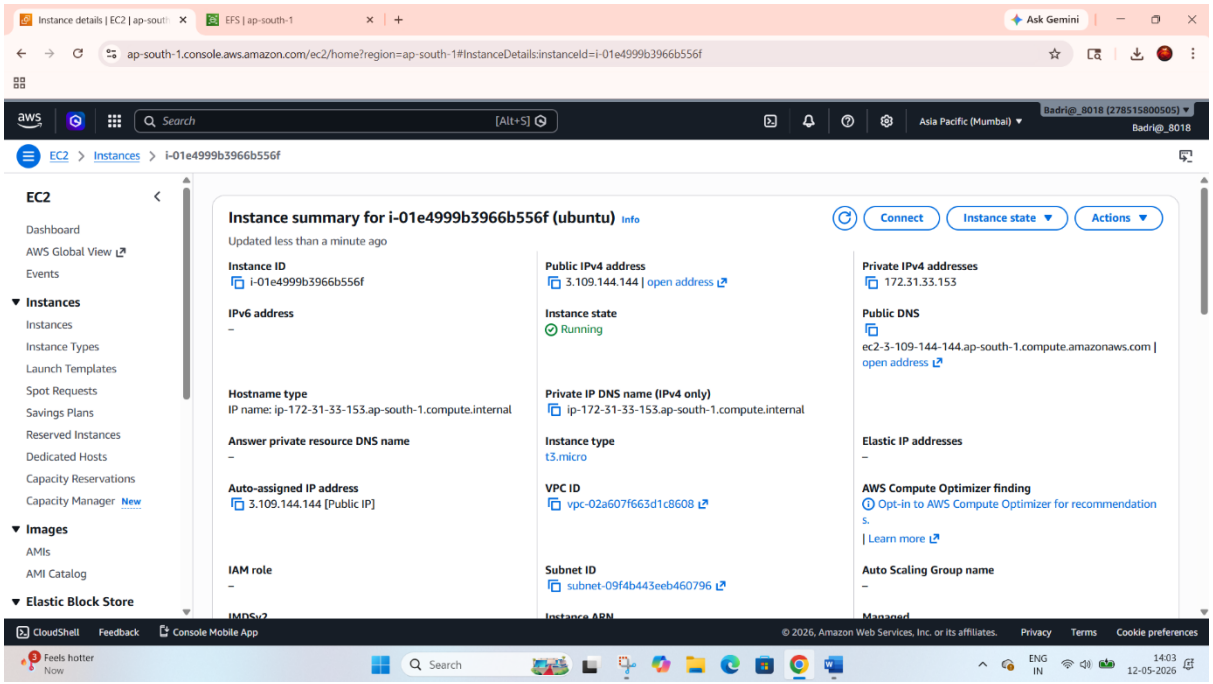

step – 15

Then lunch the Instance

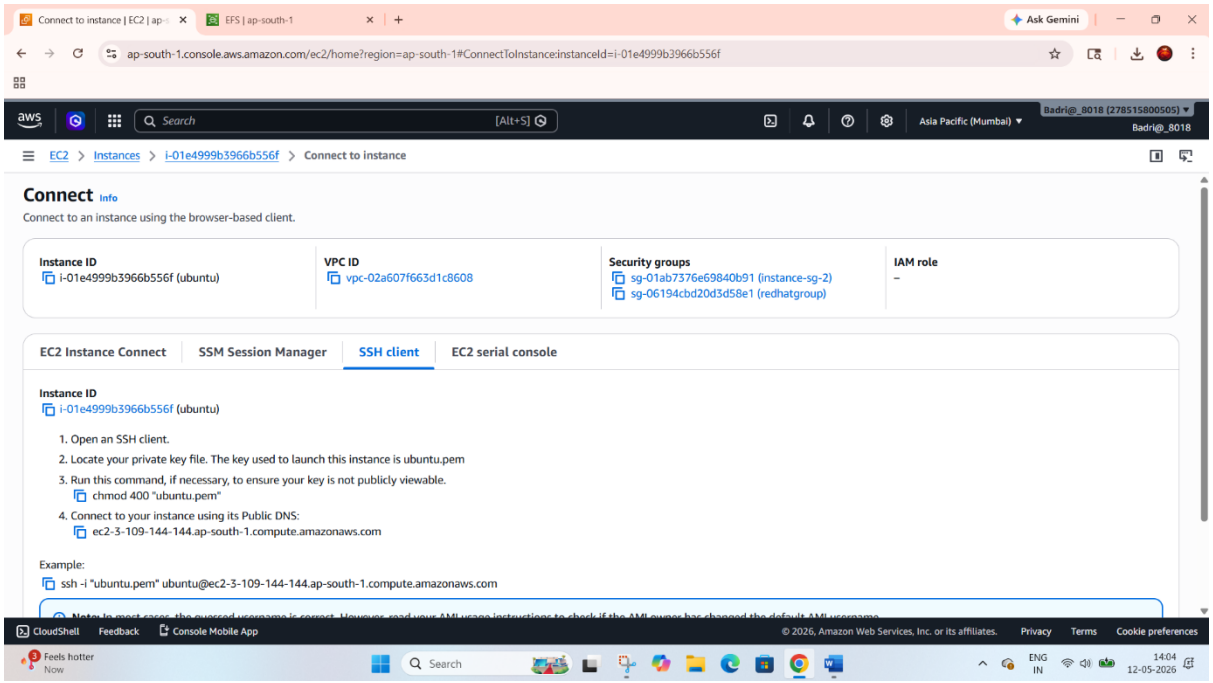

step – 16

click Instance ID

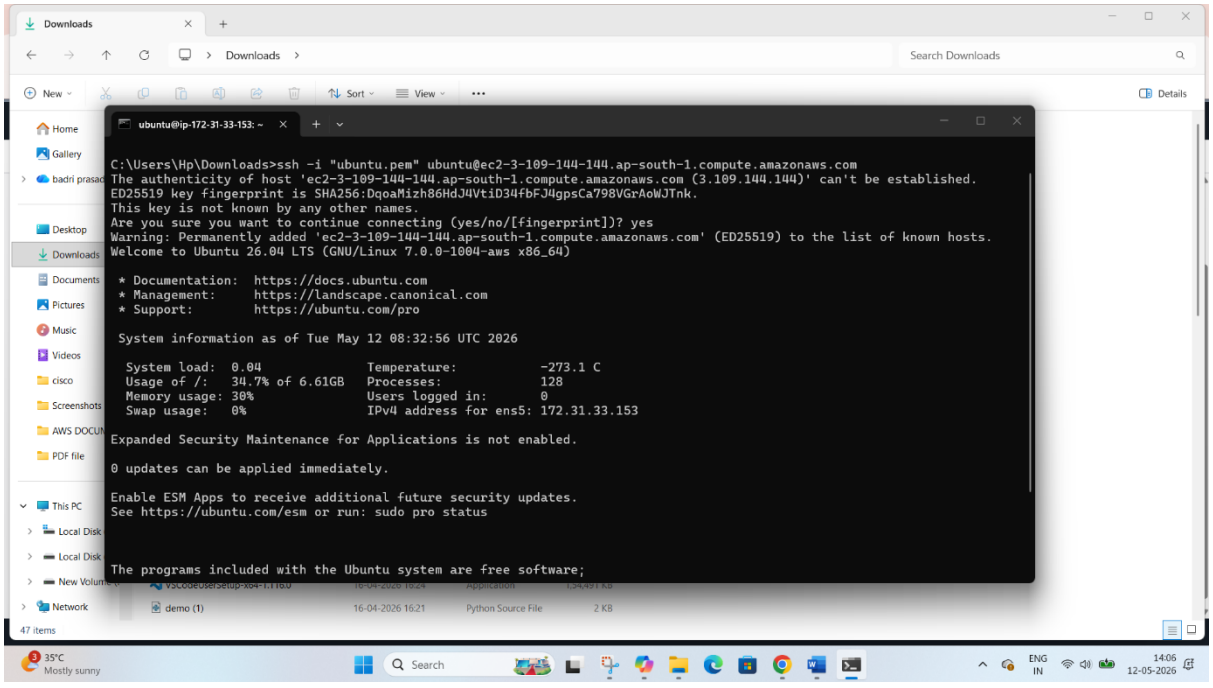

step – 17

click to Connect

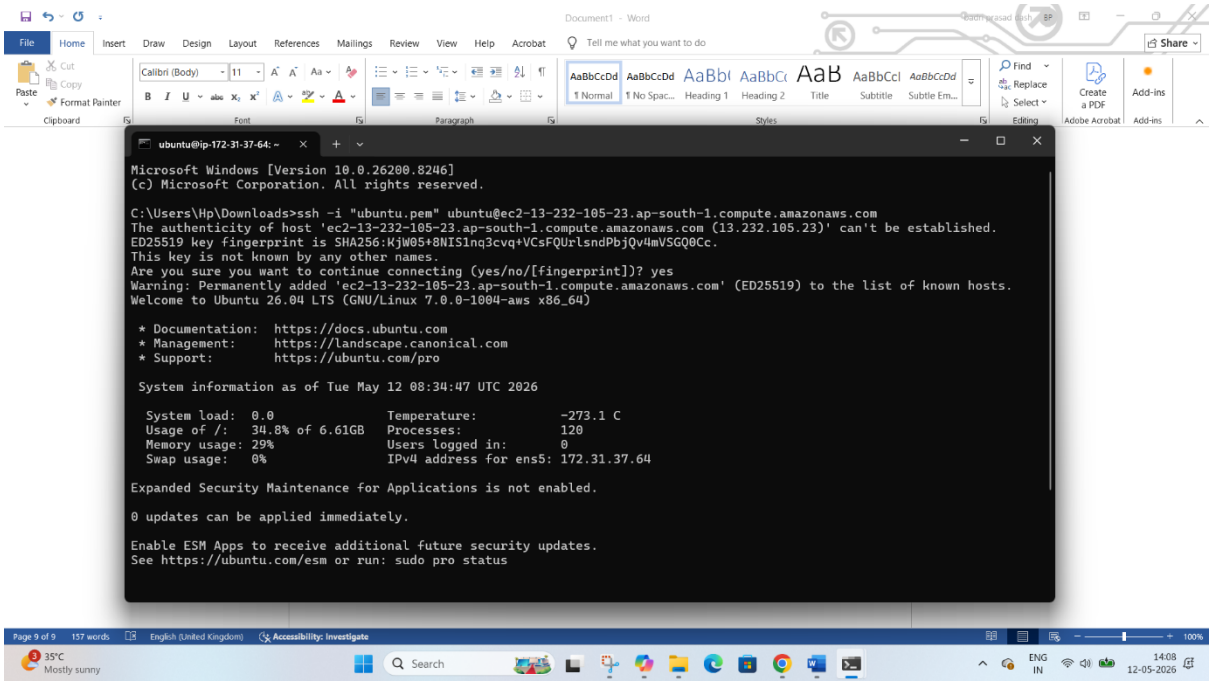

step – 18

copy the Example & paste the command prompt

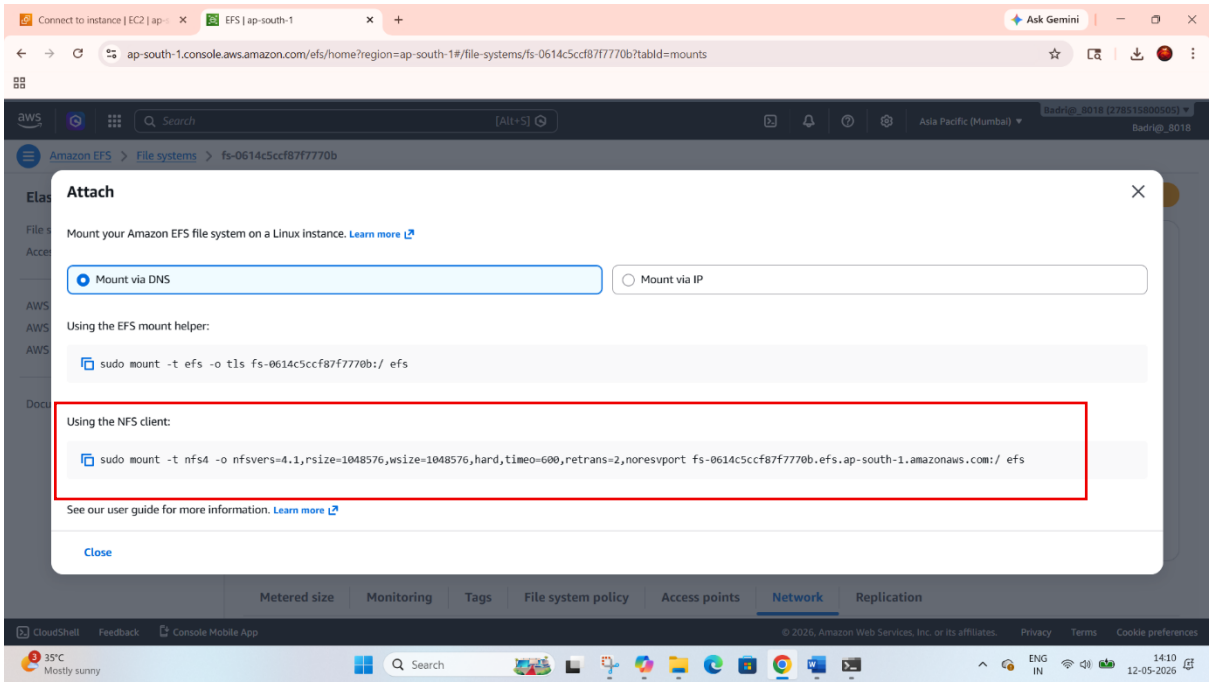

Step – 19

Same step to another instance

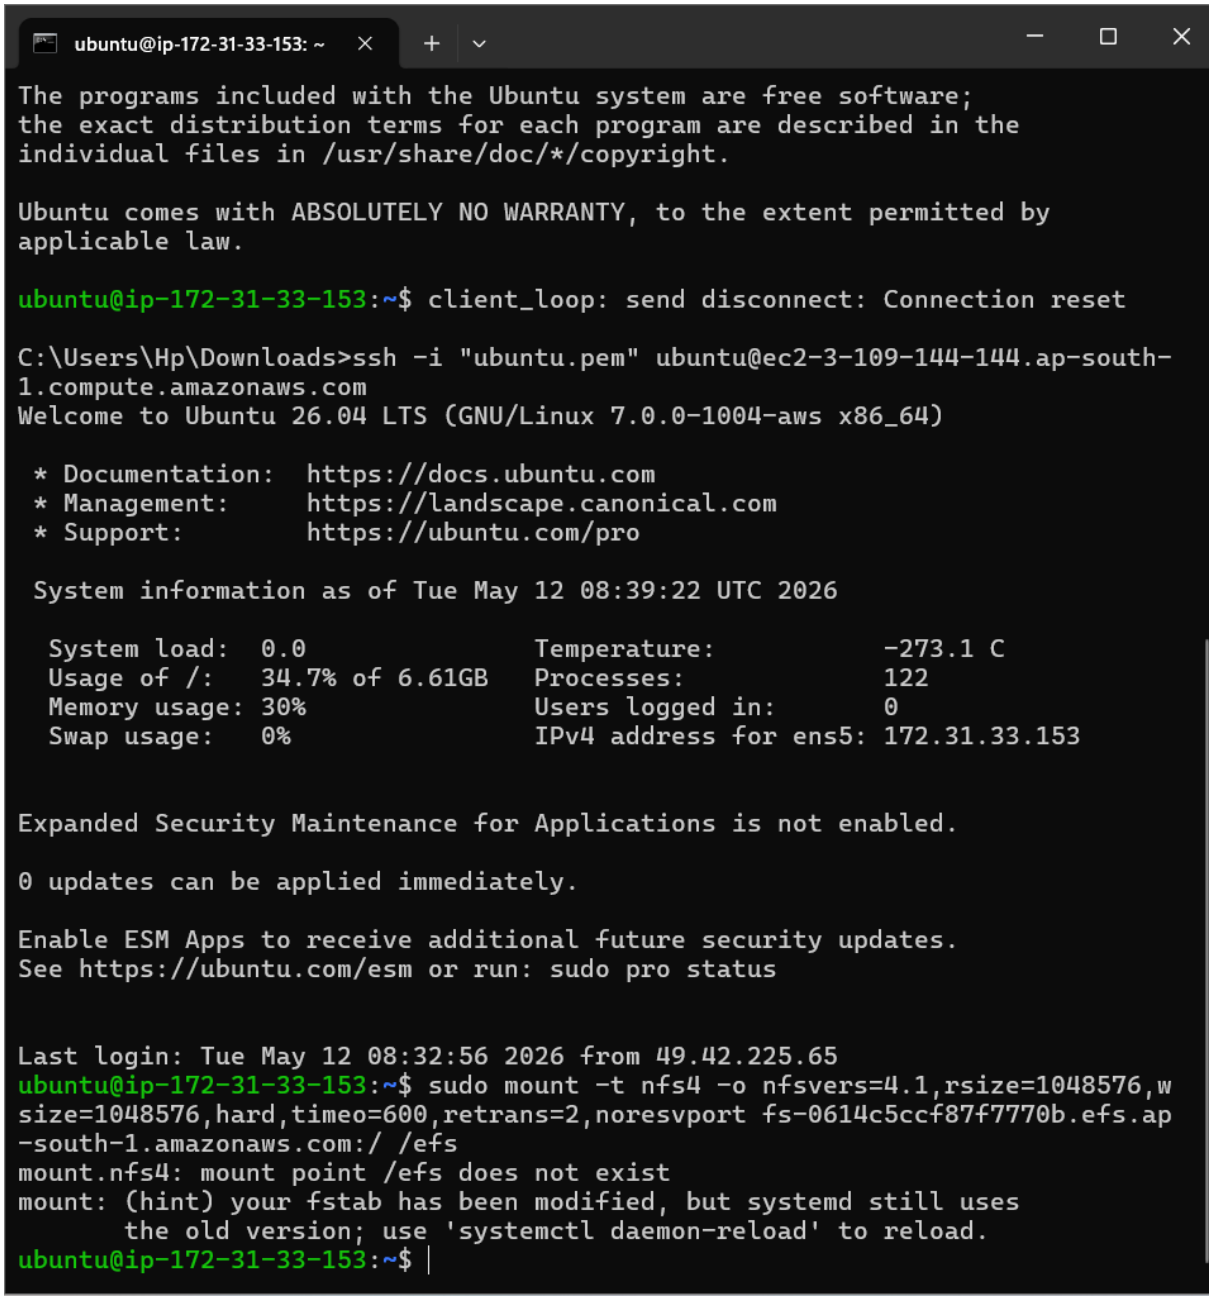

Step – 20

Then go to EFS and Click ATTACH and copy the path of NFS client

Step – 21

Paste the NFS path in command prompt

Step – 22

The error is Showing ‘Systemctl daemon-reload’ copy the path and paste

Step – 23

Then create a folder SUDO MKDIR /EFS

Step – 24

Final output

